Be the first to ask a question about Butterflies, Flowers, Vol. 3 I read most of this volume at the Y while I was working out, and it was hard to not bust out laughing in many places. And thus, for hilarity, this.

Butterflies, Flowers Vol. #01 Manga Review - fandompost.com Butterflies, Flowers is successful for two reasons: First, its utter lack of shame, and second, Yoshihara's talent for coming up with gags, both visual and situational. Though there's no nudity in this first volume, the plastic wrap is warranted, as the language and innuendo is frank and direct. Butterflies, Flowers - Manga Rock Choko Kuze is the sensible daughter of a venerable family who went bankrupt.
